Who hasn't heard that most new business ventures fail within the first few years? Like you, I heard that loud and clear many times 5-1/2 years ago.

I did it anyway. The journey continues to be a tough one, but I am committed to the flipside of that statistic – success!!!

EBHR's growth is the result of the power of connection – the power of partnerships. Here's a bit about two key partners.. more next week.

Partners like Avila's El Ranchito, who graciously introduced me to our latest new hire – Andres Nunez. Instead of losing this rising star following college graduation, they introduced him to us, and we can't be happier he is on our team!

Partners like Sherry Benjamins of S. Benjamins & Company, renown in the Talent Search space (sbcompany.net) whose untold hours of informal mentorship along insights what inspires today's talent – A progressive workplace experience. Don't miss your chance this October as S. Benjamins hosts: What's New; A Progressive Take on the Workplace Experience #GreatStartsBreakfast. EBHR is a proud partner sponsor of this event.

Thank you EBHR partners – we salute you! #PowerofPartnerships
